

2026 MOUNTAIN BOOK COMPETITION

BANFF CENTRE MOUNTAIN FILM AND BOOK FESTIVAL

Banff Centre Mountain Film and Book Festival celebrates mountain literature and film, bringing together filmmakers, writers, publishers, editors, photographers, athletes, adventurers, and – of course – readers. Featuring film screenings, guest speakers, readings, seminars, and book signings, the Festival offers a wide spectrum of experiences for the mountain enthusiast. Other activities include the Banff Mountain Film Competition, Mountain Film Festival World Tour and Mountain Culture programs such as the Adventure Filmmakers Workshop and the Mountain Writers Intensive. The Festival takes place on the campus of Banff Centre for Arts and Creativity each year in Banff Alberta, Canada. The 2026 Festival will be held October 31 to November 8, 2026.

BOOK ENTRY DEADLINE – June 30, 2026

Entry forms and 4 reading copies for each title must arrive at the Festival office by this date.

**early submission is encouraged and appreciated****

MOUNTAIN BOOK COMPETITION CATEGORIES

Prizes will be awarded in each of the following categories. Please note that in all categories (apart from the Mountain Image category) only English editions are eligible for the award.

Adventure Travel – includes non-fiction books with a theme of travel to, and non-motorized exploration of, remote and/or rugged landscapes and their cultures.

Mountain Literature – includes non-fiction books such as memoirs, biographies, and narratives on mountaineering, climbing history, mountain exploration, mountain people and culture, and human experiences of any kind in the mountains and in wilderness areas. Also includes fiction and poetry books with a focus on mountain topics. Creative narratives about climbing and mountaineering, exploration and the experiences and cultures of mountain people are accepted

Environmental Literature – includes books that pertain to the environment, specifically related to flora, wildlife, conservation, and climate change. Scholastic research and academic papers/texts will not be accepted.

Guidebook – non-fiction books dealing with physical activities in mountain environments including hiking, climbing, mountaineering and “how-to” books.

Mountain Image – includes books with a primary focus on mountain images and with text in a complementary role. Images may include photographs or reproductions of artwork.

Mountain Article – includes articles or short form essays under 7,000 words with mountain themes including, but not limited to: climbing, adventure, conservation, and mountain literature. Articles may be fiction, historical or non-fiction narratives, and can be submitted by either an editor or author of the article. This category accepts articles that have been published in print or digitally.

Climbing Literature – will be awarded to the best long-listed book on mountaineering or climbing.

Grand Prize - will be awarded to a book chosen from amongst the winners in the above categories.
